Blog Posts Analysis

- Not to surprised with what I saw- I was expected a mix of terms
  - I appreciated how the names of the people I talked about are featured prominently
  - How words fit into other words
  - The quantity of words like-party, work, business

Metadata Analysis

- Scrapbook represented the years 1984-1985 and beyond
  - Focused on Fantastic Feminist Enterprises documents, the store closing, and political work done by Joanne, her friends and colleagues
  - The keyword frequency matched what I thought I was going to get.
  - Two words that stick out: masculinity and directory
